Greetings! :

Woodturning FUNdamentals

The May issue of Woodturning FUNdamentals was released yesterday May 10th. Appropriately, this issue is heavily oriented toward practical project ideas and woodturning tips. AAW members can click here to sign in and enjoy the newest digital edition.

Volume 5, issue 3 covers these turning topics:

Projects

- Turning Multi-Axis Spindles
- Are you ready to sell your items?
- Scrabble anyone?
- Something From Nothing
- Turning Miniature, Part 3: Advanced Bowl

Tips

- Why should I use sanding sealer?
- Repairing Small Cracks with CA Glue
- Sandpaper Packets
- Ask the Expert: Twice Turned Bowls
- Ask the Expert: How do I turn legs to be the same?

Video

- Make a Natural Edge Bowl with a Stitch

This issue was made possible thanks to the contributions of Linda Bohl-Berry, Janet Collins, Barbara Dill, Thomas E. Jones, Wes Jones, Jerry Kermode, Janice Levi, John Lucas, Harvey Meyer, Jack Morse, Steve Pritchard, Daryl Rickard, Melissa Russell, David Schell, and Pat Thobe.

Free Guest Membership & Woodturning Fundamentals Preview Edition

Our previously announced Guest membership program may be offered to chapter members who are not yet AAW members. By signing up for a free Guest membership, club members can have limited access to AAW member resources for a full 60 days. They'll be able to explore what the AAW has to offer, kick our tires, and hopefully decide to become full-fledged AAW members and benefit from all of the publications and services we have to offer. Club members can sign up for a free Guest membership here.

Free Preview Issue

Now available to Guest members is a free 12-page preview issue of Woodturning FUNDamentals, May 2016 edition, which includes the Pat Thobe's project, "Scrabble anyone?" and a variety of tips. Guest members can download the free preview issue here.

I thank all chapter officers in advance for distributing this information to all of your chapter members.

Yours respectfully,

Phil
