

Chapter Scholarships

Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts John C. Campbell Folk School Anderson Ranch Arts Center

October 10, 2016

Greetings!

The AAW is pleased to announce we are continuing to offer financial assistance for quality woodturning instruction. Scholarships will be awarded to selected AAW chapter members to attend classes at one of three craft schools. The AAW Endowment Trust Fund (ETF) in combination with the three schools provides funds for these scholarships.

Fourteen scholarships will be awarded to Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts, Gatlinburg, Tennessee. This scholarship offers tuition only for courses directly related to woodturning. Room, board, and travel expenses are the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.

Ten scholarships will be awarded John C. Campbell Folk School, Brasstown, North Carolina. This scholarship offers tuition only for courses directly related to woodturning. Room, board, and travel are the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.

Four scholarships will be awarded to Anderson Ranch Arts Center, Snowmass Village, Colorado. This program offers tuition, and room and board in dual occupancy dorm rooms for courses directly related to woodturning. Travel is the responsibility of the scholarship recipient.

- Scholarship nominees must be current AAW members and be chosen through a process authorized by their AAW chapter officers. Guest members and those whose AAW memberships are lapsed or expired are not eligible.
- Star Chapters will be allotted two nominations for the first fifty members and one additional nominee for each additional fifty members. All other chapters will be allotted one nomination for the first fifty AAW members in the chapter. After that, each additional fifty AAW members will allow another nomination.
- If more members are nominated than the total number of available scholarships, a drawing will determine the winners.
- All awards will be for courses in 2017.

Chapters must provide the names of nominees, the number of chapter members, and the number of AAW members in the chapter using the online application not later than December 15, 2016. Winners will be notified by December 31, 2016.

Yours respectfully,
