

Core Stages: First time Accreditation (Please note that all stages can be scheduled earlier to allow more time for corrections)	Completion Target: First time Accreditation	Use this column to enter your months/dates for each deadline
Applicant receives accreditation packet after sending application and payment to Inform USA – 18-month timeline starts when Inform USA emails you the accreditation packet	Start date
Consultative Phase work begins: Applicant begins work on their "initial submission" of their Modified Consultative Review materials	Start date + 1 day
Call Review Phase work begins: Inform USA gathers details for call review phase	2nd month
Inform USA conducts call review calls	3rd month
Inform USA sends call review reports to applicant	Within one month of receipt
Consultative Phase work submitted: Applicant turns in their "initial submission" of narrative responses and documentation for Modified Consultative Review	8th month
Inform USA sends first consultation report to applicant with any corrections needed	Within one month of receipt
"All Rounds Due Date" . This is a deadline by which the applicant completes final submissions for any outstanding requirements (including all submissions of corrections for consultation reports and database review reports if needed), or they will need to request an extension.	16th month

Core Stages: First time Accreditation (Please note that all stages can be scheduled earlier to allow more time for corrections)	Completion Target: First time Accreditation	Use this column to enter your months/dates for each deadline
Applicant schedules virtual site visit	16th month
Inform USA conducts virtual site visit	17th month
Inform USA makes award determination	18th month	