

Inform USA Networker of the Year Award

The Inform USA Networker of the Year Award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated exceptional dedication to building and fostering relationships within the Inform USA community. This award honors those who consistently engage with others, share valuable insights, and actively contribute to a collaborative and supportive environment that promotes professional growth and development. The recipient of this prestigious award exemplifies the spirit of community, connection, and mutual support that is at the heart of Inform USA.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be an Inform USA member in good standing.
- Individuals may self-nominate.
- Demonstrates initiative by participating in Inform USA committees, Roundtables, webinars, events, and other programming.
- Frequently engages with fellow members by offering insights, support, and encouragement.
- Contributes to creating a positive, inclusive environment for all members.

Nomination and Selection Process:

- Nominations will be accepted via an online form, available to all Inform USA members.
- Members who have earned a Badge on the Inform USA Networker or have demonstrated activity on Inform USA platforms may also be nominated by Inform USA staff. (Activity includes posts, comments, and appreciations or 'likes' on Inform USA platforms)
- A final list of nominees will be announced, and the Inform USA membership will vote to determine the recipient of the Networker of the Year Award. Each member is allowed to cast only one vote.
- The individual with the most votes will be determined the winner. If there is a tie, the voting period will be extended no more than one week to encourage more members to vote for the tied nominees.

Award:

- The award will be presented to the recipient during the Award Luncheon at the Inform USA Annual Conference.
- If the recipient is unable to attend in person, the award will be shipped to their preferred address.
