

President and CEO

The board of directors XYZ announces the opening of its President and CEO position. XYZ conducts valuable industry research that provides market trends and statistics, while also providing exclusive member-only sourcing and technical information. The President and CEO reports to a board of XYZ industry leaders and has XYZ direct reports. Fiscal Year XYZ total operating revenue was XYZ, and there is a total staff of XYZ. The offices are located in XYZ.

Job Requirements

Education, training, experience:

The ideal candidate should have at least 15 years experience of executive level leadership and be a strategic thinker capable of developing both longer-term strategic plans and one-year business plans. The ideal candidate should have demonstrated leadership of a membership organization as either a board member or staff leader and have developed an internal culture of being member-driven. The President and CEO leads the efforts to retain and grow the membership. The ideal candidate should be comfortable serving as the face of the industry to important stakeholders and should have demonstrated significant public relations skills. Finally, the ideal candidate should have demonstrated skills at working with a board of directors that governs the organization using the Carver Policy Governance Model.