FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First State Bank Southwest is Excited to Announce the Appointment of Two New Board Members.

Worthington, MN, Tuesday, August 13, 2024. Long time, First State Bank Southwest board members, Chad Jaycox and Jeff Pronk will retire from the board at the end of this year. “Their dedication and commitment to the growth and success of our financial organization and the communities we serve has been greatly appreciated”, according to CEO and Board Chair, Greg R. Raymo. In preparation for their forthcoming retirement, two new individuals, Dustin Van Essen and Greg Noteboom were selected to the board of directors. According to Raymo, “we are extremely excited to welcome two successful, community minded, business leaders to the board, that will provide key input and direction to the future of our banking organization”.

Greg Noteboom is originally from Orange City, IA. He attended Northwestern College, and later Colorado Tech in Sioux Falls, SD where he earned a degree in business. Since 2014, Greg, along with his wife Mary, have owned and operated Noteboom RV in Harrisburg, SD. Greg and Mary reside in Sioux Falls along with their two young daughters. Together they enjoy weekends at the lake and boating.

Dustin Van Essen is a resident of Edgerton MN. After high school, he attended Northwest Iowa Community College and obtained his electrician’s license. In 2014, Greg and his wife Joni purchased the family business now known as Tinklenberg Lumber and Hardware of Edgerton. Dustin and Joni have two children, Dawson (12) and Dannika (11). The family enjoys camping, and four wheeling in the Black Hills.

First State Bank Southwest was chartered in 1903 and has offices in six locations to service customers in southwest Minnesota and southeast South Dakota. With ownership and directors residing in the communities served, First State Bank Southwest is truly a locally owned financial institution making local decisions. Member FDIC.
