Janesville State Bank Promotes Sean Finley to President

Janesville State Bank President Mike Finley announced that Sean Finley has been promoted to President, effective January 1, 2026. Mike Finley will continue to serve on the Board of Directors and remain involved with the bank at a strategic level.

Sean Finley has served as Chief Financial Officer of Janesville State Bank since 2019, where he has played a key role in guiding the bank's financial strategy, supporting sustainable growth, and strengthening operational discipline. In his new role as President, Finley will have overall responsibility for the bank's leadership, strategic direction, and continued commitment to serving customers and the communities the bank supports.

Prior to joining Janesville State Bank, Sean Finley worked as a Certified Public Accountant with Eide Bailly in the firm's Mankato, Minnesota office for over 10 years. His background in public accounting, combined with his financial leadership experience at the bank, brings a strong foundation in fiscal stewardship, regulatory awareness, and long-term planning.

As President, Finley will focus on maintaining the bank's agricultural and community-centered approach while continuing to strengthen relationships with customers, employees, and local partners. Janesville State Bank remains committed to delivering personalized services and supporting the economic vitality of the Janesville community.
