Justin Robinson Named a 2025 Notable Banking and Finance Leader

St. Paul, Minn. | June 9, 2025—Twin Cities Business (TCB) Magazine – a leading resource for business news, insight, and inspiration – announced Justin Robinson, senior vice president of compliance and risk at Drake Bank, as one of nine 2025 Notable Banking and Finance Leaders honorees.

The individuals featured as Notable Banking and Finance Leaders were drawn from nomination materials. To qualify as an honoree, individuals must have at least five years of experience in their field and have shown the ability to effect change in their roles or areas of practice.

TCB's Notable Banking and Finance Leaders stand out as individuals who have grown their financial institutions, emerged as industry experts, and prioritized community impact while devising solutions for their clients.

Justin joined Drake Bank in January 2021 and leads compliance, risk management, internal audit, and vendor management programs. With 25 years of experience in law, consulting, and banking, Justin has been a driving force in strengthening the Bank's compliance, risk management, and strategic initiatives. Justin has also played a key role in developing the Bank's Enterprise Risk Management program and implementing a new vendor management system. By elevating the Bank's compliance and risk management system, he has helped the Bank maintain robust regulatory compliance and achieve over 15% annual growth in deposits and loans since 2021. Additionally, Justin was promoted and joined the Bank's senior management team in December 2022.

"Drake Bank is proud to have Justin as part of our senior management team," said Laura Gevik, chief operations officer at Drake Bank. "His contributions to strategic initiatives and guidance, combined with his depth of expertise, makes him an invaluable asset to our team and our mission."
