Minnesota Lakes Bank Announces Changes to Board of Directors

For immediate release: Monday, January 6, 2025

Delano, MN--- Changes have been announced to the membership of the Minnesota Lakes Bank Board of Directors, according to Noah W. Wilcox, President and CEO of Minnesota Lakes Bank.

Angela Heying, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at Minnesota Lakes Bank, has been appointed to the bank's board of directors. Angela joined Minnesota Lakes Bank in 2013 and has worked in the banking industry for the past 34 years. During that time, she has performed a wide variety of positions including compliance officer, board secretary, internal auditor, cashier, operations officer, information security officer, Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) officer, Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) officer and business continuity officer.

Josh Gehlen, Senior Vice President of Lending and Chief Credit Officer at Minnesota Lakes Bank, has been appointed to the bank's board of directors. Josh joined Minnesota Lakes Bank in 2019 and has worked in the banking industry for over 22 years. Josh is involved in the local community through service on the Wright County Economic Development Authority and the City of Delano Planning Commission. He is the current President of the Delano Area Chamber of Commerce and has served on the Board since 2020.

Angela and Josh join Noah Wilcox, Julie Wilcox, Rebecca Horgan, Steve Burggraf, and Don Johnson II on the bank's board of directors.

Noah W. Wilcox, Minnesota Lakes Bank President and CEO, commented: "I would like to welcome Angela and Josh to the board. As exceptional leaders and dedicated assets of the bank, they will be valuable contributors to the board governance of Minnesota Lakes Bank."
