Northeast Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of Chad Lindgren as Executive Vice President, leading the Coon Rapids commercial banking team and serving the surrounding areas. Chad brings extensive commercial banking and leadership experience to the role, including the valuable perspective as a former owner in a 2nd generation family-owned business. Chad joins Northeast Bank from Bell Bank where he served as Senior Vice President, Commercial Banking Manager. He is committed to being a trusted advisor with local businesses and their decision makers to help them achieve their financial goals through expert guidance and anticipating their evolving needs in banking and beyond. This approach, when combined with his commitment to the communities we serve, aligns with our mission of building strong communities one relationship at a time.
