

Postsecondary Education: Autistic Collegians' Experiences of Success

How to Support Autistic Students' Academic Success?

Our understandings come from a national survey of 425 autistic undergraduate student participants

OUR SPONSORS:

SPENCER
FOUNDATION

THE FRIST CENTER
FOR Autism AND INNOVATION

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS:

FACULTY:

- Use office hours to discover autistic students' interests and clarify course expectations
- Draw on autistic students' interests for class assignments
- Recognize autistic students' strengths

ADVISORS:

- Ensure autistic students are taking the right courses to meet their academic aspirations
- Make academic plans explicit and collaborative

ADMINISTRATORS:

- Track autistic students' retention and graduation rates
- Provide training to faculty on supporting autistic students in the classroom

CITATION:

COX, B. E. & NACHMAN, B. R. (2024). HOW TO SUPPORT AUTISTIC STUDENTS' ACADEMIC SUCCESS? PEACES [POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION: AUTISTIC COLLEGIANS' EXPERIENCES OF SUCCESS] WAVE 1, FALL 2022 (FAST FACT #16). COLLEGE AUTISM NETWORK.