

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Heather Cook

Assistant Vice President – Business Development

Exchange Bank

478-457-2266

hcook@exch.bank

Exchange Bank Supports Adult Literacy Jackson with $1,500 Donation

Braselton, GA — Friday, January 30, 2026 — Exchange Bank recently presented a $1,500 donation to Adult Literacy Jackson in support of the organization’s mission to strengthen individuals and communities through adult literacy. Pictured at the presentation are Sandee George, Executive Director of Adult Literacy Jackson; Tripp Conner, Senior Vice President and Market President of Exchange Bank; and Schaun Crane, Vice President and Commercial Banker of Exchange Bank.

Adult Literacy Jackson is dedicated to changing lives and communities through the power of adult literacy. Guided by the belief that “literacy is a lifestyle,” the organization mobilizes local agencies and volunteers in a community-wide literacy campaign. Through its programs, Adult Literacy Jackson equips adults with essential reading, writing, and workforce skills, helping them become credentialed, civic-minded individuals prepared for high-wage, high-demand careers in Jackson County.

“Support from community partners like Exchange Bank allows us to expand our reach and deepen our impact,” said Sandee George, Executive Director of Adult Literacy Jackson. “Adult literacy is about more than education—it is about opportunity, confidence, and creating a stronger community. We are grateful for Exchange Bank’s commitment to our mission and to the people of Jackson County.”

Tripp Conner emphasized the bank’s commitment to community engagement as Exchange Bank prepares to open its Braselton branch this spring. “At Exchange Bank, our tagline ‘Where Community Matters’ is more than a statement—it is a guiding principle,” said

Conner. “We are proud to begin investing in the Braselton community months before our branch opens, and we are honored to support Adult Literacy Jackson’s work to create meaningful opportunities for adults and families across the county.”

Schaun Crane echoed the importance of early community involvement. “Strong communities are built on access to education, opportunity, and partnership,” Crane said. “Supporting Adult Literacy Jackson aligns closely with our values as a community bank. We are excited to be part of the Braselton community and to support organizations that are making a lasting difference.”

Exchange Bank’s donation reflects its broader commitment to community development, education, and workforce advancement throughout the communities it serves.

To learn more about Adult Literacy Jackson and how to support its mission, visit www.adultliteracyjackson.org.

To learn about Exchange Bank and its new branch coming soon to Braselton, visit www.exch.bank.

About Exchange Bank

Exchange Bank is a locally owned community bank headquartered in Milledgeville, Georgia. Established in 1903, the bank has proudly served the financial needs of individuals, families, and businesses for over a century. With a focus on relationship banking and community involvement, Exchange Bank remains committed to providing exceptional service and supporting the communities where it operates.