Flint Community Bank Promotes Alison Trotter to GVP / Director of Deposit Operations

Albany, GA – Flint Community Bank is proud to announce the promotion of Alison Trotter to Group Vice President / Director of Deposit Operations. Alison has been a valued member of the Flint team for 8 years, beginning her career as a teller and most recently serving as Vice President and Manager of Deposit Operations.

Alison's promotion reflects her exceptional leadership, deep knowledge of deposit operations, and unwavering commitment to Flint's mission of exceeding expectations through servant leadership and community-centered service.

"Alison is the perfect example of what it means to grow with Flint," said Frank Griffin, President of Flint Community Bank. "She leads with both heart and excellence, and her journey from teller to group vice president is a testament to her character, work ethic, and the culture we're building here. We're incredibly proud to see her take this next step."

In her new role, Alison will continue to oversee the bank's deposit operations team - driving efficiency, innovation, and superior service across Flint's deposit platforms.

When she's not at the bank, Alison enjoys reading, gardening, spending time with her husband, Michael, and their two children, Lauren and Collins, especially at the beach.

Flint Community Bank congratulates Alison on this well-earned achievement and looks forward to the continued impact of her leadership.
