BankSouth Welcomes Courtney Allen as Director of Learning and Development

GREENSBORO, GA – BankSouth, a leading financial institution serving the state of Georgia, is excited to announce the appointment of Courtney Allen as Director of Learning and Development. Courtney brings with her over twenty years of banking experience, most recently with Renasant Bank where Courtney began as Branch Manager before moving into the role of Development Manager/VP of Customer Experience.

Prior to starting her career, Courtney earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Georgia. She later earned her master's degree in Learning, Leadership, & Organizational Development in 2023 also from the University of Georgia.

“We are thrilled that Courtney chose to join the BankSouth team,” says Traci Thrasher, VP, Human Resources Officer. “Her vision and expertise will not only enhance our learning initiatives but also build upon the stellar foundation of customer service that sets BankSouth apart. We are confident that Courtney will play a large role in empowering our team to deliver exceptional service every day.”

Courtney is married to Scot Allen, a special education teacher, and they have one daughter, Madeline, who will be starting her journey as a Bulldog in January. An Athens resident, Courtney enjoys spending her free time with her dogs, nurturing her love for plants, and cheering on UGA Football. While she doesn't play any instruments, her passion for music led her to an unforgettable experience of singing at Carnegie Hall.
