

Georgia Legislature – 2025 Senate

Senate Profile

- Partisan Split
 - Republicans hold 33 seats (60%)
 - Democrats hold 23 seats (40%)
 - The 2024 election did not change the partisan split at all
- Gender Split
 - 77% of the upper chamber is male
 - 23% of Senators are female
 - There is currently only one female in the GOP caucus (Sen. Kay Kirkpatrick)
- Time in Office
 - The average time in office for this cohort of Senators is seven years
 - For 15 Senators (27%), the 2025 session will be their first or second in office
 - Sen. Ed Harbison (D-Columbus) is the Dean of the Senate; his service began in 1993

Freshman Senators

Senate District 34

Sen. Kenya Wicks, D-Fayetteville

Replaces Valencia Seay (Retired)

- District Clayton and Fayette Counties
- Education BS in Environmental Science from University of Alabama
- Professional Veteran – served 30 years in the Army retiring as a Major; currently serving as a Court-appointed special advocate for foster care children
- Political Fayette County Democrats, NAACP; won a contested Primary and Runoff
- Other Raised by her grandmother in Louisville, KY; secretary for her HOA
- Contact Campaign@Vote4KenyaWicks.org 404-452-1418
- Committees
 - Government Oversight
 - Urban Affairs
 - Public Safety
 - Veterans, Military, & Homeland Security
 - Science & Technology

Senate District 38

Sen. RaShaun Kemp, D-Atlanta

Replaces Horacena Tate (Retired)

- District Fulton County
- Education Wright State University (Dayton, OH), Capella University
- Professional Former high school teacher and principal; current leader in the charter school space, both at the state and national levels
- Political Previously ran for state House in 2022 but lost to incumbent Roger Bruce; survived a six-way Primary and Runoff in 2024 cycle
- Other First openly gay man elected to the GA State Senate; married with two children
- Contact RaShaunForGeorgia@gmail.com 614-778-9160 614-778-9160
- Committees
 - Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
 - State Institutions & Property
 - Education & Youth
 - Urban Affairs
 - Government Oversight

Senate District 49

Sen. Drew Echols, R-Alto

Replaces Shelly Echols (Retired)

- District Hall County
- Professional Owns Jaemor Farms, a 110-year-old family farming operation; under Echols, the farm has grown into an agritourism hot spot in NE Georgia with more than 1M customers annually
- Community Leadership Hall County, Leadership Georgia, Hall County Farm Bureau, Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce, GA Fruit and Vegetable Growers Association
- Other His wife, Shelly, previously held the seat
- Contact Drew@JaemorFarms.com 770-540-1802
- Committees
 - Retirement – Secretary
 - Agriculture & Consumer Affairs – Ex Officio
 - Economic Development & Tourism
 - Natural Resources & the Environment
 - Science & Technology

Senate District 55

Sen. Randal Mangham, D-Stone Mountain

Replaces Gloria Butler (Retired)

- District DeKalb and Gwinnett Counties
- Education Howard University School of Law, Emory School of Theology
- Professional Current Principal at Randal Alonzo Mangham LLC where he practices criminal defense law; former personal injury lawyer and city judge
- Political Previously served in the GA House from 2000-2010; unsuccessful bid for Governor in 2010; won out over four other Democrats in 2024
- Community Founding member of the GA Association of African American Attorneys; Board member of the South DeKalb Community Development Corporation
- Contact ManghamForSenate@gmail.com 404-944-7330 470-223-0011
- Committees
 - Banking & Financial Institutions
 - Health & Human Services
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - Retirement
 - State & Local Governmental Operations

Georgia Legislature – 2025 House

House Profile

Partisan Split	Republicans hold 100 seats (56%) Democrats hold 80 seats (44%) Democrats netted two House seats in the 2024 election cycle
Gender Split	62% of the lower chamber is male There are 68 female legislators in the House (38%) President Pro Temp Jan Jones (R-Milton) is the highest-ranking women in GA legislative history
Time in Office	As in the Senate, this class of House members averages about seven years of service 35% of the chamber (63 members) will be in their first or second legislative biennium in 2025; the partisan split of these newer members is almost 50/50 Rep. Gerald Greene (R-Cuthbert) is the Dean of the House; he was first elected 42 years ago in 1983. Rules Committee Chairman Butch Parrish (R-Swainsboro) came in just two years later.

Freshman Representatives

House District 42

Rep. Gabriel Sanchez, D-Smyrna

Defeated Teri Anulewicz in Primary

District	Cobb County
Education	Georgia State University
Professional	Policy Associate at ProGeorgia, a coalition of advocacy organization serving underrepresented and underserved communities
Political	Self-identified Socialist; has vowed to not accept corporate or corporate PAC support; previously worked for Reps. Sam Park and Park Cannon
Other	First generation American, family immigrated from Columbia in the 1980s
Contact	SanchezForGeorgia@gmail.com 470-531-7251
Committees	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Budget & Fiscal Affairs Oversight• Governmental Affairs• Interstate Cooperation

House District 56

Rep. Bryce Berry, D-Atlanta

Defeated Mesha Mainor in General

- District Fulton County
- Education Degree in Economics from Morehouse College
- Professional Public school teacher (middle school)
- Political Lived in Ferguson, MO during the seminal Black Lives Matter movement in 2014; state youth leader for Biden’s 2020 election and Deputy Political Director for Warnock and Abrams campaigns in 2022; currently president of the Young Democrats of Georgia
- Other First Gen Z member of the Georgia House
- Contact Bryce@BerryForGA.com 314-599-4101
- Committees
 - Economic Development & Tourism
 - Information & Audits

House District 61

Rep. Mekyah McQueen, D-Smyrna

Replaces Roger Bruce (Retired)

- District Cobb and Fulton Counties
- Education Mathematics degree from Spelman College
- Professional Public school teacher (high school)
- Community Board of Directors at TAMTAM Global, a non-profit dedicated to research on Black Women’s health
- Contact Mekyah@McQueenforGA.com 404-913-2606
- Committees
 - Code Revision
 - Creative Arts & Entertainment
 - Special Rules

House District 64

Rep. Sylvia Baker, D-Douglasville

Replaces Kimberly New (moved to HD 40)

- District Douglas County
- Professional Criminal defense and immigration attorney; previous public defender
- Political Douglas County Democratic Committee, Douglas County Board of Education, Democratic Women’s Council of Douglas Country
- Other Sought the office of Chief Magistrate Judge of Douglas County in 2022 but was disqualified; nationally and internationally ranked tennis player
- Contact Sylvia@WayferLaw.com 770-364-5691
- Committees
 - Code Revision
 - Defense & Veterans Affairs
 - Special Rules

House District 65

Rep. Robert Dawson, D-Atlanta

Replaces Mandisha Thomas (ran for US 6)

- District Coweta and Fulton Counties
- Education Sarah Lawrence College, Harvard University, Bennington College
- Professional Financial technology, cybersecurity, software development, compliance
- Political Previously ran for House District 61 in 2022 (alongside Sen. Rashaun Kemp) – both were defeated by incumbent Roger Bruce; previously ran for South Fulton City Council in 2021; served as staff writer for the 104th session of congress (1995-1997)
- Contact Robert@ElectRobertDawson.com 770-276-9421 470-270-1423
- Committees
 - Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
 - Information & Audits
 - Intragovernmental Coordination

House District 71

Rep. Jutt Howard, R-Whitesburg

Replaces J. Collins (Retired)

- District Carroll County
- Education University of West Georgia
- Professional VP of Business Operations at NG Turf, a premier grower and distributor of turf grass for landscapes, golf courses, athletic fields
- Community Georgia Crop Improvement Association
- Contact Jutt@NGTurf.com 678-618-4304
- Committees
 - Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - Natural Resources & Environment

Houst District 74

Rep. Robert Flournoy, Jr., D-Hampton

Replaces Karen Mathiak (moved to HD 82)

- District Clayton and Henry Counties
- Education Georgia State University
- Professional Previous Title Examiner at Smith, Welch, Webb, and White Attorneys; Fulton County property appraiser
- Political Chair of the Student Advisory Council to the Georgia Board of Regents while in college
- Community Assistant Pastor of United in Faith Christian Ministries in Jackson
- Contact RobertForState@gmail.com 470-502-3433
- Committees
 - Energy, Utilities & Telecommunications
 - State Planning & Community Affairs
 - State Properties

House District 81

Rep. Noelle Kahaian, R-Locust Grove

Defeated Lauren Daniel in Primary

- District Henry County
- Education Psychology degree William Tyndale College, Paralegal Certificate from Oakland University (Michigan)
- Professional President and Co-Founder of Protect Student Health Georgia; owns an accounting and consulting firm with husband
- Political Ambassador for Veterans for Trump, active with True the Vote (election integrity)
- Community Abstinence-based health educator through local pregnancy center
- Contact Noelle@NoelleForGeorgia.com 470-303-5898
- Committees
 - Defense & Veterans Affairs
 - Energy, Utilities & Telecommunications
 - State Planning & Community Affairs

Houst District 96

Rep. Arlene Beckles, PhD, D-Norcross

Replaces Pete Marin (Retired)

- District Gwinnett County
- Education Doctorate in Organizational Leadership; enrolled in a JD program at Florida State on Cybersecurity, Privacy, and Technology Risk Management
- Professional IT Cybersecurity Professional, with experience in global investment banks, public accounting, financial services, media, and healthcare
- Political Norcross City Council from 2021-2024; current member of the state’s Cybersecurity Planning Committee
- Other Originally from Barbados
- Contact BecklesDistrict96@gmail.com 770-310-9942
- Committees
 - Special Rules
 - State Properties
 - Technology & Infrastructure Innovation

House District 105

Rep. Sandy Donatucci, R-Buford

Defeated Farooq Mughal in the General

- District Gwinnett County
- Education Marketing degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania
- Professional Local REALTOR
- Political Gwinnett County Planning and Zoning Commissioner; previously ran for state House in 2022; Gwinnett Republican Party
- Community Competitive cheer coach, former personal trainer
- Contact SandyForHouse@gmail.com 770-712-9020
- Committees
 - Education
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - Transportation

House District 117

Rep. Mary Ann Santos, D-McDonough

Replaces Lauren Daniel (moved to HD 81)

- District Henry County
- Education Bachelor's degree in criminal justice leadership from Mercer University, MPA from Clayton State; currently pursuing a JD from John Marshall Law School
- Professional Legal Office Administrator at Henry County Board of Commissioners
- Other First-generation American; domestic violence survivor
- Contact SantosForGeorgia@gmail.com 770-334-5600
- Committees
 - Code Revision
 - Juvenile Judiciary
 - State Properties

House District 126

Rep. LC Myles, D-Hephzibah

Replaces Gloria Frazier (Retired)

- District Burke, Jenkins, and Richmond Counties
- Professional Former IT Manager at General Dynamics, a global aerospace and defense company; retired military veteran who served in Vietnam
- Political Vice Chair of the Richmond County Democratic Party
- Community Previously served on the Augusta Board of Zoning Appeals
- Contact Myles.L@comcast.net 706-951-8318
- Committees
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - Intragovernmental Coordination
 - Public Safety & Homeland Security

House District 131

Rep. Rob Clifton, R-Evans

Replaces Jodi Lott (Retired)

- District Columbia County
- Education Building Construction, Auburn University
- Professional CEO of Clifton Construction, a premier General Contractor with experience in developing medical building, churches, offices, restaurants, c-stores, retail
- Political Won a five-way race in the 2024 Primary; Leadership Augusta, Leadership Columbia County
- Other On the 2006-2008 Auburn Football team
- Contact Rob@VoteClifton.com 706-306-7787
- Committees
 - Economic Development & Tourism
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - Transportation

House District 143

Rep. Anissa Jones, D-Macon

Replaces James Beverly (Retired)

- District Bibb and Houston Counties
- Education BS in Biology from Fort Valley State University, Doctor of Chiropractic from Life University, MBA from Wesleyan College
- Professional Chiropractor
- Political Former Vice Chair of the Macon Water Authority; Past President of the Main Street Macon Board, committed to the revitalization of downtown Macon
- Community First African American Chiropractor in Macon; Georgia Chiropractic Association
- Contact ElectAnissaJones@gmail.com 478-737-1340 478-219-3155
- Committees
 - Economic Development & Tourism
 - Interstate Cooperation
 - State Planning & Community Affairs

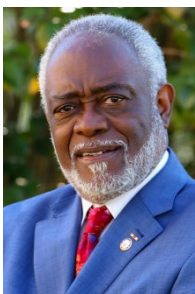

House District 145

Rep. Tangie Herring, D-Macon

Replaces Robert Dickey (moved to HD 134)

- District Bibb and Monroe Counties
- Education Georgia College, Fort Valley State University, Mercer University, Georgia State University
- Professional Career classroom teacher in Atlanta Public School System; APS Teacher of the Year
- Other Recently published her first children’s book
- Contact Tangie@TangieForGeorgia.com 478-444-5212
- Committees
 - Code Revision
 - Economic Development & Tourism
 - Urban Affairs

House District 149

Rep. Floyd Griffin, D-Milledgeville

Defeated Ken Vance in General

- District Bibb, Baldwin, and Jones Counties
- Education Degree in funeral services from Grupton Jones College (Stonecrest, GA); BS in Building Construction from Tuskegee Institute; Masters in contract procurement and management from the Florida Institute of Technology; Army Command General Staff College and National War College
- Professional Retired US Army Colonel with tours in Vietnam and Germany; taught military science at Wake Forest University and Winston-Salem State University; current Vice President of Slater Funeral Home in Milledgeville
- Political Former Mayor of Milledgeville, former GA state Senator (1994-1998); ran for Lt. Governor in 1998
- Contact FLGriff52@gmail.com 478-451-9803
- Committees
 - Defense & Veterans Affairs
 - Special Rules
 - State Planning & Community Affairs

House District 169

Rep. Angie Osteen, R-Ambrose

Replaces Clay Pirkle (Retired)

- District Coffee, Irwin, Turner, and Tift Counties
- Professional Registered Nurse; fourth-generation farm owner
- Community Actively supports programs for farmers, educator, and veterans
- Contact AngieO31512@gmail.com 912-389-0494
- Committees
- Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
 - Public & Community Health
 - Rural Development

House District 170

Rep. Jaclyn Ford, R-Alapaha

Replaces Penny Houston (Retired)

- District Berrien, Cook, and Tift Counties
- Education Agriculture, University of Georgia; Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (ABAC)
- Professional Vice President and COO of Dixon Cotton Gin Company
- Political Appointed by Gov. Kemp to the Georgia Economic Development Board in 2019
- Community ABAC Board of Trustees; Georgia Farm Service Agency Committee; Georgia Agribusiness Council Board; Georgia Farm Bureau Commodities Committee for Cotton; former delegate to the National Cotton Council
- Contact JDixonFord@gmail.com 229-686-0965
- Committees
- Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
 - Natural Resources & Environment
 - Rural Development