

Perissa Ali Clark, Assistant Regional Director, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)

Perissa Clark is an Assistant Regional Director (“ARD”) for the FDIC’s Division of Risk Management Supervision in San Francisco. She has over 30 years of bank regulatory experience, including seven years in her current ARD role. As of May 2024, her team is responsible for overseeing insured depository institutions in Northern California, Hawaii, and the Pacific Islands for safety and soundness purposes. She is also the executive sponsor for the San Francisco Region’s Emerging Technology Working Group, co-sponsor of the Region’s Large Insured Depository Institution program, and Vice Chairman for the FDIC’s Course Oversight Group.

Perissa holds a Bachelor of Science degree with High Honors in Managerial Economics from the University of California at Davis. She resides in the San Francisco Bay Area with her husband, and their two adult children currently both live in Boston.