

Jason Dutchak, Executive Vice President, BankOnIT

Jason is an EVP and member of the Board of Directors of BankOnIT USA, a company whose mission is to provide banks technology results they can't get on their own or with anybody else.

Not a banker nor a technician, Jason has led Entrepreneurial and Fortune 500 firms with a singular mindset; bridging the gap between banker and tech in order to bring world-class technology to community financial institutions so they can compete and win against larger competition.

Jason grew up Canadian and now resides in the warmer climate of Scottsdale, Arizona and enjoys spending time there with his wife Amanda and two girls Ella and Charlotte.
