

Jeanette Bertucci, Senior Sales Executive, Information Security & Technology, Jack Henry

Jeanette is a trusted technical advisor for financial institutions for over 30 years. Her expertise with cyber security and cloud solutions help financial institutions reduce risk and improve technology through resilient strategies. Jeanette has been with Jack Henry for over 26 years, and currently manages the Western Region for both banks and credit Unions as a Sr. Sales Executive for Information Security and Technology.

Jeanette has many accolades in her technical sales career, but her most treasured award was from her peers. She is the recipient of Jack Henry & Associates highly coveted CEO Award, for her skills in collaboration and an attitude of “doing the right thing and doing whatever it takes”. She serves on the Board of Directors for an International Children’s Feeding Network, Volunteers for Young Women in Leadership and currently resides in Mansfield, Texas with her husband. She has five children and seven awesome grandchildren.