The Tiburon Police Department

The Tiburon Police Department, established in 1972, is seeking dedicated individuals who are committed to making a difference in one of the Bay Area's most scenic communities. The department prides itself on building lasting connections with the residents, businesses, and visitors who make Tiburon such a special place to live and work.

Lateral transfers and recent academy graduates are encouraged to apply for a career that offers purpose, pride, and a deep sense of community. The department offers specialized assignments including: motorcycle unit, bicycle patrol, and rangemaster opportunities.

The Town celebrates diversity, embraces accountability, and fosters a culture of mutual respect and teamwork where every contribution is recognized and valued.

About the Town of Tiburon

Located just north of the Golden Gate Bridge along the shores of San Francisco Bay in southern Marin County, Tiburon is a vibrant yet tranquil community of approximately 9,100 residents.

Tiburon is a general law city operating under the council-manager form of government. An elected Town Council appoints a Town Manager, who serves as the chief executive. The Town Manager leads a dedicated, professional staff and oversees the Chief of Police and Police Department.
