

REGIONAL SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

As a global organization, CPR Institute continually strives to meet the unique needs of its members in various regions while furthering its overall mission by promoting early, effective, and efficient commercial dispute prevention, management and resolution. Through Regional Chapters in Houston and Seattle, and periodic regional programming across the U.S., CPR Institute seeks to create meaningful relationships and connections between members located in their respective regions and to provide programming and content that is locally relevant.

Regional meetings offer valuable networking and promotional opportunities for innovators to showcase how they help local in-house and outside counsel navigate the unique challenges of their specific legal environments.
