

2023 CPR Global Conference

International Approaches to Dispute Prevention: Identifying and Resolving Conflicts Early

ONLINE - December 7, 2023

Hosted by CPR's Young Leaders in Alternative Dispute Resolution (Y-ADR)

Please join us online for CPR's Global Conference on December 7, 2023, hosted by CPR's Young Leaders in Alternative Dispute Resolution (Y-ADR) and featuring international dispute resolution programs organized by:

- The Y-ADR Steering Committee
- CPR's Brazilian Advisory Board
- CPR's Canadian Advisory Board
- CPR's European Advisory Board

The 2023 CPR Global Conference will focus on the importance of promptly addressing conflicts before they harden into disputes thus maintaining business purpose, preserving working relationships, and ensuring business continuity while saving costs. Panels will discuss cutting-edge dispute prevention mechanisms that are implemented in various industries and in various regions around the world.

Africa Arbitration Day – New York (AAD-NY)

IN-PERSON - December 8, 2023

Co-hosted with the New York City Bar Association

Please join us at the New York City Bar Association in New York City on December 8, 2023, for a ground-breaking conference highlighting important issues and trends relevant to arbitration in Africa and fostering greater community among international arbitration practitioners in North America and Africa.

CPR is pleased to be the founding sponsor for this important initiative being developed by the AAD-NY Steering Committee which will feature two substantive panels, an arbitration moot, and a networking cocktail reception.

Global Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

DIAMOND SPONSORSHIP ~ USD $5,000

- Opportunity to be the exclusive named sponsor of either the moot, lunch, or cocktail hour at the AAD-NY event.
- Opportunity to present awards to winners of the AAD-NY arbitration moot.
- Opportunity to display marketing materials at the AAD-NY event.
- Recognition as a Diamond Sponsor in the Global Conference program, on the event webpage, in CPR's social media, and distributed to local and international contacts.
- Recognition as a Diamond Sponsor during the Global Conference.

PLATINUM SPONSORSHIP ~ USD $2,500

- Opportunity to display marketing materials at the AAD-NY event.
- Recognition as a Platinum Sponsor in the Global Conference program, on the event webpage, in CPR's social media, and distributed to local and international contacts.
- Recognition as a Platinum Sponsor during the Global Conference.

GOLD SPONSORSHIP ~ USD $1,000

- Recognition as a Gold Sponsor in the program, on the event webpage, in CPR's social media, and distributed to local and international contacts.
- Recognition as a Gold Sponsor during the Global Conference.

If you are interested in any of these sponsorship opportunities, please contact Knar Nahikian at knahikian@cpradr.org

CPR'S YOUNG LEADERS IN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (Y-ADR)

This program educates ADR practitioners younger than 45 or with less than eight years of relevant experience on the full spectrum of dispute prevention and resolution mechanisms. The Y-ADR Steering Committee is appointed through a highly selective process to identify the next generation of ADR leaders from the CPR community.

THE CPR INTERNATIONAL ADVISORY BOARDS

The CPR International Advisory Boards are composed of more senior practitioners who are considered ADR leaders in their respective regions. Drawn from companies, law firms and academic institutions, they develop and implement programs tailored to the needs of their respective regions while engaging with the broader global CPR community.

2023 AAD-NY STEERING COMMITTEE

The AAD-NY Steering Committee is led by Nawi Ukabiala (Debevoise & Plimpton, New York), Tiwalade Aderoju (Olympus Solicitors and Advocates, Lagos, Nigeria), Prince-Alex Iwu (Diaz, Reus & Targ LLP, Miami), Chinwe Ohanele (Ohanele Law Firm, Los Angeles; Adjunct Professor, USC Gould School of Law), and Mohannad El-Murtadi (Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP, New York).