Special Note on The Rising Star Award

In order to be officially recognized as part of CoSIDA’s special awards program, the Rising Star Award must be approved as a constitutional change. Members will be able to approve this and other constitutional changes at the business meeting at the CoSIDA Workshop in Nashville.

The board, however, will present the Rising Star Award this year as an award for special merit, and is soliciting nominations of deserving individuals from both the University and College Division levels.
