EBRHA NEXT

Embracing Technology. Revolutionizing Housing.

Join us for our fourth annual EBRHA Next - Housing Innovation and Technology Conference.

Connect with approximately 200 housing professionals at EBRHA Next: Housing Innovation & Technology Conference on Saturday, May 16, 2026, from 9:00 AM–2:00 PM at Holy Names University in Oakland.

Engage directly with housing providers, property owners, property managers, realtors, and industry experts who influence purchasing decisions, capital improvements, and long-term asset planning.

Showcase your solutions through high-visibility sponsorship placement, in-person conversations, and curated networking designed to foster real business relationships—not just foot traffic.

Position your organization as a thought leader through panel discussions and speaking opportunities focused on innovation, technology, and the future of rental housing.

Build lasting connections with a targeted audience actively seeking tools, partners, and strategies to improve operations, manage risk, and modernize their housing portfolios.
