

Nicole Ghann began her career at TD Bank in 2007 as a Teller and today she serves the organization as the Regional Operations Officer supporting South Florida and Southwest Florida. In addition to her operational leadership, she has been a passionate financial educator since 2008. She has delivered countless presentations to audiences ranging from kindergarten to high school seniors, helping to build financial literacy at every stage. She has also specialized in adaptive financial education, working closely with individuals on the autism spectrum to ensure inclusive and accessible learning experiences. More recently, she has expanded her impact through TD Safe (Security Awareness for Everyone) presentations, promoting fraud awareness and financial safety within the communities we serve.
