

Chattanooga Dine Around

Wednesday, September 25

Welcome to Chattanooga! As a warm greeting from Chattanooga Tourism Co., each of you will receive a $15 Dine Around token at the opening reception, which can be used at participating local restaurants. Tokens are valid for September 25 only and cannot be used for alcohol or gratuity. We recommend making a reservation in advance to ensure a smooth dining experience.

Transportation will be provided from the opening reception to participating restaurants. Buses will begin departing the Hunter Museum of American Art starting at 7:00PM. Restaurants will either be within walking distance of the opening reception or on one of three bus routes. Please note the bus route for your selected restaurant.

RESTAURANTS:

Bridgeman's Chop House (TNHTA Member)

Bridgeman's Chophouse reflects the legacy of exceptional service and hospitality. With their commitment to USDA Prime beef and chops, fresh seafood, and a fine wine selection, Bridgeman's Chop House embodies the spirit of hospitality.

Opening Reception Transportation: Downtown Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 0.9 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.7 miles

Calliope

Calliope beckons with a fusion of Levantine flavors and Southern flair, inviting guests to relish dishes like the ember-roasted poulet rouge and the lamb neck, each bursting with a mix of traditional and bold new seasonings. This cozy restaurant in Chattanooga's MLK neighborhood is perfect for any occasion, offering shared plates like sabich hummus and whipped feta that promise a delightful culinary adventure in Chattanooga's vibrant dining scene.

Opening Reception Transportation: Downtown Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.0 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.8 miles

Easy Bistro

At Easy Bistro, Chef Erik Niel blends the rich culinary traditions of Louisiana with the finesse of French cooking, creating a menu that celebrates the bounty of the Tennessee River Valley. The ever-evolving offerings, from raw bar delights to hearty, hearth-roasted meats, showcase top-tier seafood and local ingredients, promising a sophisticated yet approachable dining adventure under the guidance of a James Beard Award-nominated chef.

Opening Reception Transportation: Downtown Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.0 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.7 miles

Ernest Chinese (TNHTA Member)

Ernest Chinese revamps Chattanooga's dining scene, presenting a refined approach to American Chinese and Sichuan cuisine. Dive into delectable dishes like Mapo Tofu and Peking Beef, or enjoy a flamboyant tiki drink at the full bar, all set in a stylish yet cozy space that honors the restaurant's late mascot, Ernest, the polydactyl tabby.

Opening Reception Transportation: Southside Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.7 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.8 miles

Feed Co. Table and Tavern

Feed Co. Table and Tavern offers a slice of Chattanooga's Southside at its most vibrant, where farm-fresh Southern favorites meet culinary innovation. Indulge in dishes featuring 100% grass-fed wagyu beef and free-range chicken, served in a setting that pays homage to the site's historical roots as the Chattanooga Feed and Seed, creating a true neighborhood dining experience.

Opening Reception Transportation: Southside Route | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.5 miles | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.5 miles

Il Primo

Il Primo is a cherished date night destination in Chattanooga's Northshore/Riverview district, known for its cozy ambiance and a menu rich with American-Italian favorites. Savor the house-special lasagna or refresh with a handcrafted limoncello, each complemented by an extensive selection of Italian and American wines and innovative craft cocktails.

Opening Reception Transportation: Northshore Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.9 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 2.9 miles

Main Street Meats

Main Street Meats is where Chattanooga's culinary enthusiasts gather to savor some of the best burgers and potato salad in town, all in the heart of the Southside. From the neighborhood butcher shop to your plate, experience a menu passionately crafted with whole-animal butchery—enjoy expertly aged cuts, innovative dishes, and artisanal craft cocktails in a vibrant, farm-to-table setting.

Opening Reception Transportation: Southside Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.6 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.8 miles

Public House

Public House, situated in the vibrant heart of downtown Chattanooga at Warehouse Row, stands out as a local favorite renowned for its sophisticated take on Southern cuisine and inviting ambiance. Enjoy a meal that merges classic Southern charm with contemporary flair, featuring standout dishes like Chattanooga's favorite fried chicken and the signature pimento cheese, all within a beautifully designed space that offers both indoor and outdoor dining.

Opening Reception Transportation: Downtown Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.0 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.4 miles

Chattanooga Dine Around Wednesday, September 25

Welcome to Chattanooga! As a warm greeting from Chattanooga Tourism Co., each of you will receive a $15 Dine Around token at the opening reception, which can be used at participating local restaurants. Tokens are valid for September 25 only and cannot be used for alcohol or gratuity. We recommend making a reservation in advance to ensure a smooth dining experience.

Transportation will be provided from the opening reception to participating restaurants. Buses will begin departing the Hunter Museum of American Art starting at 7:00PM. Restaurants will either be within walking distance of the opening reception or on one of three bus routes. Please note the bus route for your selected restaurant.

RESTAURANTS:

Puckett's Grocery & Restaurant (TNHTA Member)

Puckett's Chattanooga delivers a slice of Tennessee tradition with a side of live music, located just steps from the TN Aquarium. Dive into a menu where Southern classics meet heartfelt cooking, from slow-smoked barbecue and home-style sides to upscale culinary delights. Embrace the warm, family-friendly atmosphere where every meal promises real food, served with genuine hospitality and a dash of fun.

Opening Reception Transportation: Walking Distance | Distance from Opening Reception: 0.3 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 1.3 miles

Taqueria Jalisco Ania

Located just off Main Street in Chattanooga's Southside, Taqueria ANIA is celebrated for serving some of the city's finest authentic Mexican cuisine in an elevated setting. From traditional tacos and enchiladas to innovative dishes like 'ceviche of the day' and pineapple fajitas, every bite is a testament to culinary craftsmanship, complemented by an extensive selection of tequila and mezcal at the spirited bar.

Opening Reception Transportation: Southside Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.8 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.9 miles

Tony's Pasta Shop and Trattoria

Tony's Pasta Shop and Trattoria, located in the scenic Bluff View Art District, stands as a celebrated fixture of Chattanooga's dining landscape, offering classic Italian cuisine in a casual atmosphere. Revel in dishes that highlight the art of traditional cooking with handmade pastas and freshly made sauces, sourced directly from our on-site herb garden.

Opening Reception Transportation: Walking Distance | Distance from Opening Reception: 500 feet | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 1.4 miles

Totto Sushi and Grill (TNHTA Member)

Totto Sushi and Grill, proudly standing in the quirky NorthShore District of Chattanooga, across the river, has been celebrated as the 'Best Sushi' spot for seven consecutive years. Dive into a menu that features an array of beautifully crafted sushi rolls, fresh sashimi, and diverse bento boxes, alongside traditional favorites like teriyaki and grilled dishes. Whether you're a seasoned sushi aficionado or a newcomer to Japanese cuisine, Totto offers a culinary experience that caters to every palate.

Opening Reception Transportation: Northshore Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 0.6 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 2.1 miles

Zaya 1943 Korean Steakhouse (TNHTA Member)

Zaya 1943 Korean Steakhouse masterfully merges the grandeur of a traditional steakhouse with the vibrant zest of Korean BBQ. Guests are invited to savor an exquisite selection of meats, including the luxuriously tender 55-day dry-aged ribeye and the sought-after A5 Japanese Miyazaki Wagyu, all expertly cooked tableside. Immerse in a culinary journey where every cut is a showcase of supreme quality and intricate flavors, crafted to create unforgettable dining moments.

Opening Reception Transportation: Northshore Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.3 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 2.4 miles

DESSERT + DRINKS:

Clumpies - Northshore & Southside (TNHTA Member)

Make sure your culinary journey ends (or begins) on a sweet note at Clumpies Ice Cream, where tradition meets innovation in every scoop. Celebrating over 25 years of crafting extraordinary ice cream, Clumpies offers a delightful array of flavors from the nostalgic to the novel, including the explosive Firecracker with popping Pop Rocks. Whether you visit the vibrant Northshore or the bustling Southside, Clumpies ensures a memorable dessert experience with its small-batch ice cream made from the finest ingredients.

Northshore Location: Northshore Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 0.6 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 1.9 miles

Southside Location: Southside Route | Distance from Opening Reception: 1.3 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 0.3 miles

Whiskey Thief (TNHTA Member)

Atop the stunning Edwin Hotel, Whiskey Thief captivates with its panoramic views of the Walnut Street Bridge and the Tennessee River, providing an exceptional backdrop for an unparalleled whiskey experience. Named after the essential tool used by Master Distillers to 'steal' samples from aging barrels, Whiskey Thief Chattanooga celebrates Tennessee's rich distilling heritage. Discover a curated selection of whiskey flights, including local favorites like Chattanooga Whiskey, and indulge in a crafted cocktail while soaking in the stunning riverside scenery.

Opening Reception Transportation: Walking Distance | Distance from Opening Reception: 0.1 miles | Distance to the Chattanooga Hotel: 1.4 miles