Please describe your personal and professional experiences with nonprofit organizations. *

From 1997-2004 I was employed at a non-profit (Center For Resource Economics/Island Press) and was an officer of the Center from 2000-2004. I have also served on the Board of Directors of the American Society for Engineering Education and been a volunteer or leader in several smaller non-profits.

Please describe your top 3 policy goals. *

Maine can thrive like never before in the 21st century if we tackle 3 things:

1. Support growth of Maine's Innovation Economy to generate more high-wage jobs and drive collaboration among all sectors of our education system to prepare more Mainers to thrive in those jobs;
 2. Ensure that quality housing and healthcare are available to every Mainer at costs they can afford;
 3. Accelerate the clean energy transition so we can blunt the impact of climate change and drive down energy costs by bringing online more non-carbon-emitting generation.

Please provide specific ways in which, if elected, you would partner with the nonprofit sector to achieve the goals of your campaign. *

The innovation economy depends on collaboration with non-profits like the Finance Authority of Maine, The Manufacturers Association of Maine and state and local Chambers of Commerce.

Addressing the cost of housing and healthcare depends on working with a slew of non-profits in those areas; non-profits like the York County Community Action corporation are essential to reducing the social harm of these high costs.

The transition to a clean-energy economy creates abundant opportunities for non-profits to participate in the generation, distribution, and storage of energy.
