

TENANT HIGHLIGHT

About AIAG: The Automotive Industry Action Group (AIAG) is a unique not-for-profit mobility industry association where automakers, suppliers, service providers, government entities, and individuals in academia have worked collaboratively for over 42 years to drive down cost and complexity within the supply chain. Now one of the largest global automotive associations, we're comprised of more than 4,800 companies in over 70 countries. Learn more at www.aiag.com.

About Judson Center: Judson Center, trusted by Michigan families for 100 years, is a non-profit human services agency providing expert, comprehensive services that strengthen children, adults and families impacted by abuse and neglect, autism, and developmental, behavioral and physical health challenges so they can achieve whole health, well-being, and maximum potential. Judson Center also offers integrated primary healthcare for all through Judson Center Health in Warren and is a Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC). Since opening its doors in 1924, Judson Center has grown to change the lives of more than 13,000 children, adults, and families each year. Judson Center has offices in Genesee, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw, and Wayne counties. Headquarters are located at 30301 Northwestern Highway, Suite 100, Farmington Hills, MI 48334-3277. HAPPY 100th ANNIVERSARY!

Our team at AIAG - Automotive Industry Action Group would like to wish Judson Center a Happy 100th Year Anniversary! We're proud of our partnership with this mission-based organization that has dedicated its services to empowering thousands of goal-driven individuals with special needs. We have cultivated a safe space for those living with disabilities to explore and develop their work independence with AIAG.

"We are incredibly excited and thankful for the opportunity to engage with the Judson Center volunteers to assist them with skill-building experiences," explained AIAG CEO Matt Pohlman. "They've done an amazing job supporting AIAG, and our team has gained more than we gave by working with this incredible group of people from the Judson Center."

In celebration of the Judson Center fostering independence in those they serve with innovative programs and partnerships, we are happy that we're able to add value to such an impactful organization. #Happy100thAnniversary
