PMAM Lyceum Graduate Expectations

Graduates of the PMAM Leadership Lyceum program are expected to support the organization with key positions of leadership in local affiliates, PMAM and/or the National Apartment Association. Graduates will also seek to find and mentor others to become committed to the association and become Leadership Lyceum graduates themselves to further the goals of PMAM. In order to maintain your PMAM Lyceum title you are required to maintain a membership with NAA and remain active on a committee, with at least 75% attendance, for a period of at least five years.

I certify that I have completed the course requirements of the PMAM Leadership Lyceum program. Further, I agree to comply with the PMAM Lyceum Graduate Expectations.
