

Meet Andrew Addy

Andrew Addy (Zumper) currently serves as Treasurer of the Property Management Association of Michigan (PMAM) Board of Directors and is also an active member of the PMA of Mid-Michigan Board of Directors. His leadership extends across multiple committees, including the PMA of Mid-Michigan Next Gen Committee, DMAA Next Gen Committee (Co-Chair), DMAA Supplier Committee, and the PMAM GLAStar Committee.

Andrew is passionate about strengthening membership through retention, recruitment, and expansion. He believes associations thrive by providing meaningful value through education, networking, advocacy, and overall member support. He identifies key industry challenges as advocacy and legislative issues, recruitment and retention, operational inefficiencies, and profitability, and is committed to helping members navigate them.

Andrew brings strong association and industry experience, having attended NAA's major events (AOD and Apartmentalize) multiple times and NMHC's Optech event twice. A Leadership Lyceum Eagle recipient, he is trained in board governance and structure. He currently serves as the NAA Region 3 Liaison for the National Supplier Council and was honored with NAA's 20 on the Rise – Class of 2025, recognizing multifamily leaders set to make the biggest impact in the next decade. His contributions have also been recognized with the 2023 PMA of Mid-Michigan President's Volunteer of the Year Award, 2024 DMAA PRISM Business Person of the Year Award and 2024 Business Person of the Year Award at GLAStar.

Professionally, Andrew is an Enterprise Account Executive at multifamily tech startup Zumper, working with partners and clients across the Midwest and Atlantic regions. His role gives him a unique and innovative perspective that he brings to board discussions. Known for being supportive, reliable, and deeply committed, Andrew is eager to continue serving at the state level and advancing PMAM's mission.
