

RADIO, TV AND DIGITAL MEDIA AWARDS

Call for Entries

The RIAS Berlin Commission welcomes submissions for its 2023 Media Prize Awards that honor outstanding stories broadcast in 2022. There will be a total of $10,000 (10,000 EUR) in prize money awarded for exceptional radio, TV and digital stories that touch upon a transatlantic topic – including stories about Germany that appear in US media and stories about the United States that appear in German media.

The RIAS Media Prize is designed to strengthen the diversity of transatlantic dialogue and deepen interest in German-American relations.

Ideally, the contributions submitted should:

- go beyond daily and routine reporting
- promote dialogue on similarities and differences between the two countries
- stand out thematically and/or in their execution
- take on new questions in a creative way
- critically examine and make diversity of social reality clear
- contain interesting ideas for transatlantic debate
- encourage reflection on problems and solutions
- question clichés about Germans or Americans
- describe trends in everyday life of general interest
- contribute to mutual curiosity and understanding
- strengthen democratic and societal values

RADIO, TV and Digital Media Awards

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES:

JANUARY 31, 2023

Entries must include:

- full name, address, phone, email,
- posting date of the story,
- a brief description of the story

Clearly indicate the category for your entry:

1. Television
2. Radio
3. Digital (includes podcasts and online)
4. RIAS Fellow Prize
(best TV, radio or digital entry
by RIAS participant)

All entries must be submitted via email with a valid URL that is active until at least March 2023 and can be accessed without proprietary information (password) by the RIAS jury.

All entries must be sent to:

email: info@riasberlin.org

The RIAS Berlin Commission is a binational organization for the promotion of German-American understanding in the field of broadcasting.