Q: What eLearning activities are currently available?

A: SBI offers live webinars, enduring webinars, Symposium Collections, Case Modules, and Journal of Breast Imaging CME articles. Click on "Course Catalog" to browse all available activities.

Q: After registering, how do I watch an SBI live webinar?

A: Upon registration you will receive an email confirmation with instructions on how to access the live webinar. You can click on the link provided in your registration confirmation email that will bring you directly to the eLearning Portal. Alternatively, you can visit the eLearning Portal and launch the webinar within the My Programs section.

Q: I registered for a live webinar but couldn't attend. Can I still access the recording?

A: Yes! You can find the webinar recording in the "My Programs" section of the eLearning Portal. Click on the webinar in your Programs and click "Start" or "Launch Product" to view the recording.

Q: I didn't register for a live webinar but am interested in the content. Can I still view the webinar?

A: Previously live webinars will be re-released as enduring products for CME. Stay tuned for these upcoming releases!

Q: How do I claim credit?

A: SBI learners must complete the Credit Submission Survey and, if applicable, a short post-test with quiz questions. Once you have completed the required item(s), your CME certificate will be available to print or download from the "My Credit" page.

Q: What are SBI’s credit reporting organizations?

A: As of January 2023, SBI CME is accredited by the Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS). Prior to 2023, SBI activities were accredited by the American College of Radiology (ACR).

Q: Where can I find my CME credits from the SBI Symposium?

A: Beginning with the 2021 Virtual Symposium, credit claiming for the Annual Symposium is completed directly within each conference’s website. Please be sure to download and save your Symposium CME certificates each year prior to the credit claiming deadline.

To claim credit for the 2023 SBI Symposium, visit the 2023 meeting website, login with your attendee credentials, and click on the “Claim Credit” tile. If you are claiming credit after the deadline, August 7, 2023, please contact SBI at info@sbi-online.org.

Q: Are my CME credits available in the CME Gateway?

A: SBI is not currently a participating organization and is not connected to the CME Gateway. SBI members can find their SBI CME in the eLearning Portal.
