

Since regular mammography screening began in the U.S. in the 1980's, the breast cancer death rate has plummeted 35%.

